BIG POSSIBILITIES FOR AMERICA

Marvelous Growth of All Enterprises.

TREMENDOUS COAL SUPPLY

Farm Values Have Almost Doubled—Stamp Sales Exceed All Nations.

The tremendous strides this country is making in every direction of growth constitute the United States possibilities before us open up wide speculation as to what the future may have in store, says the Washington Post. According to the report of the department of commerce and labor the developed water power of the United States is 5,357,900 horse power, and the number of wheels it turns is 52,827. The undeveloped water power is believed to be equal to that already developed, and what has been developed is capable of infinite expansion. The estimated coal supply is 3,125,708,000,000 long tons, while the highest production in any one year was but 429,000,000 tons. At the present rate of consumption the supply will last 7,360 years. So we need not fear a coal famine for several generations yet.

The available iron ore is estimated at 4,785,000,000 long tons, while we mine only about 52,000,000 tons a year. At that rate we have iron ore enough to last a hundred years yet, and by that time ingenuity and discovery will be able to find something to take its place. In 1907 we produced nearly one-half of the world's output of pig iron, and at the rate our production is increasing it will not be many years until we equal all the rest of the world in this line. The United States owns 754,895,000 acres of land that is yet to be brought under cultivation.

In 1897 the farm wealth of the country was $4,250,000,000, and in 1907 this had been increased to $7,412,000,000. The last three years have shown a great change in crop values. For instance, in 1906 cotton led with a value of $722,000,000; the next year they forged ahead with $744,000,000.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Hartford Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Bring you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that backbone pains come from sick kidneys.

"Would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys."

Many residents of this vicinity endorse them.

Mrs. Charles Stephens, 526 Clay St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and consider them to be a good remedy. I did not take Doan's Kidney Pills exactly as directed, but they strengthened my back and relieved me of the acute pain. When I felt better, I stopped taking them, instead of continuing their use until a complete cure was effected. I am now improved in every way and can consequently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other persons suffering kidney trouble."

and in 1908 corn took the lead with the enormous value of $1,616,000,000. At one time exports of manufactured products were but a small per cent of the total exports, but in 1908 they amounted to about 41 per cent of the total.

Perhaps the best test of our business growth is shown by the receipts of the post-office department from the sale of stamps. In 1820 the receipts were about $1,000,000; by 1850 they increased to $20,000,000; in 1870 to $33,000,000; in 1900, to $102,000,000, and in 1908 to $191,500,000. The figures show that in 1907 the number of letters and post-cards sent through the postal system of the United States was 6,460,000,000, as against 3,263,000,000 in the German Empire, 1,119,000,000 in the United Kingdom, 1,119,000,000 in France, and 1,067,000,000 in Austria-Hungary. The telegraph messages sent in the United States in 1907 reached the enormous number of 98,000,000,000. In this connection it must be remembered that the telephone is a large competitor of the telegraph, especially for long commercial messages, and it is growing in favor each year.

In nearly every step of the world's progress during the last hundred years the United States has been the pioneer. American frigates in the war of 1812 caused a revolution in the construction of war vessels, and it was the United States in 1862 that sounded the death knell of wooden warships and started the world to building Dreadnoughts. It was the United States that placed upon the ocean the first steamship, and it was the United States, with its Gatling guns, that pioneered the way for machine guns, which now play such an important part in the world's armament.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customers so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." Texas "Tightwads."

It is said that three of the stingiest men in the State were in town yesterday. One of them will not drink as much water as he wants unless it is from another man's well. The second forbids any of his family from writing anything but a "small hand," as it is a waste of ink to make large letters. The third stops his clock at night in order to save wear and tear on the machinery. All of them decline to take their county paper on the ground that it is a terrible strain on their spectacles to read newspapers even in the daytime.—[Olney (Tex.) Oracle.]

The Favorite Hair Dressing

Of discriminating people is Aull's Hair Tonic. Not because of sensational methods of advertising, but because it is the only Hair Tonic and Restorer that will do just what it is advertised to do. Zeke Was Right.

Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture was discussing, apropos of Decoration day, the work to which the soldier turned at the end of the Civil War.

"Many soldiers," he said, "turned to farming. Some of our best fruit farms were started by old soldiers who, finding their business gone at the war's end, adopted a country life."

"They made ingenious farmers. Here is an example. An Iowa man employed a boy to guard his strawberry patch from birds. The berries—fancy fruit as big as peaches—kept disappearing, and the man suspected the boy of eating them."

"So one morning he came down to the patch, looked it over, and then said:

"I know you don't touch these berries, my lad, but Zeke says you do. To-day I'll test you—just to convince Zeke."

"He took out a little lump of chalk and pretended to chalk the boy's lips; but really it was only his finger that he rubbed over them."

"Now," he said, "when I come down here this afternoon we'll see who's right about you, Zeke or I."

"And with pretended carelessness he tossed the chalk on the ground."

"On his return some hours later it was plain who was right. The boy's lips were chalked with a white, stiff layer, thick as paste."

LOUISVILLE HORSE SHOW

Will be Held This Year During Week of October 11—Fine Premiums Offered.

Announcement comes from Louisville to the effect that the Louisville Horse Show will be held this year during the week of October 11th. It will be held in the First Regiment Armory, which is unsurpassed as a show place for horses. The price-list has been completed, and the amounts to be awarded will run well over $12,000. The horsemen of the State and country at large, who regard the Louisville show as the equal of any in the country, will have something worth while to contest for this fall.

Kentucky saddle horses are as famous as Kentucky thoroughbreds, and the Louisville show has always made a large place for them. This year there will be many classes of three-gaited and five-gaited saddlers, and they promise to be unusually well filled. The best that have been developed during the fair season and at the State Fair will be shown, and real championships will be awarded. Mat Cohen, the Ball Brothers, the Gay Brothers, Lawrence Jones and others who own blue-blooded saddle horses will be among the exhibitors.

National attention was attracted to the Louisville show last year by the fact that Judge W. H. Moore, conceded to have the finest stable of show horses in the country, was an exhibitor, and by the exhibitions of four-in-hands by Alfred G. Vanderbilt. Both will be back in October, reinforced by Reginald Vanderbilt, C. W. Watson, Miss Emily Bedford, J. W. Harriman and other owners of show horses that are famous on both sides of the ocean.

Night on Bald Mountain.

On a lonely night, Alex. Benton, of Fort Edward, N. Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by Asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it's the greatest Throat and Lung cure on earth. Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hemorrhages and Sore Lungs are surely cured by it. Best for Hay Fever, Grip and Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by James H. Williams.

Nag.

"A man's wife can make him or mar him," said Senator La Follette, at a dinner in Madison. "A good wife fills him full of ambition. A nagging wife takes all energy out of him, leaving him listless, limp."

"I knew a clever but unsuccessful man in Primrose. I used to wonder why this man didn't get on, why he didn't work hard. I found out one day when, quite by chance, I asked him what he was going to have at his house that night for supper."

"He shook his head at this question and answered with a sad little laugh: "Oh, cold sour meat and nag."

In Regard to Obituaries, &c.

Notwithstanding we print at the top of a column in almost every issue of The Herald a notice to the effect that we print resolutions of respect, obituaries, &c., to the extent of 150 words free of charge, balance charged for at the rate of one cent per word, yet we sometimes receive articles which violate this rule. In justice to ourselves and the public, and to keep from being overrun with this class of reading matter, this rule must be observed. Count the words of your article and if you do not want to pay any charges, cut it down to 150 words, or notify us who will pay for the excess. Stamps may be enclosed—taken same as cash. This rule applies to all kinds of obituaries—by lodges or individuals.

A Surprise Birthday Party.

A crowd of about 75 relatives and friends of Mr. M. F. Kimbley gathered at his home on Thursday Aug. 26, to celebrate his 61st birthday anniversary. All took well-filled baskets and served a delightful dinner in the front yard, where temporary tables were erected. Mr. Kimbley's nephew took him to Smalhouse early Thursday morning and stayed until about 11:30 in order to give the crowd a chance to assemble.

On his return he was very much surprised to find such a crowd at his home, as he had never suspected anything. But he was still more surprised when he was told that he was eating one of his own goats, which had been stolen out the day before and cooked for this special occasion. Those present were:

Dr. Jesse Eversly and wife, Mr. Jimmie Fulkerson and wife, Mr. N. D. Fulkerson and wife, Mr. Erskine Fulkerson and wife, Mr. Worth Fulkerson and wife, Mr. Louis Fulkerson and wife, Mr. W. C. Fulkerson and wife, Mr. Will Ball and wife, Mr. Lige Addington, Mr. W. M. Addington and wife, Mr. Ray Addington and wife, Mr. W. K. Addington and wife, Mr. Henderson Stearnsman and wife, Mr. Finis Igleheart and wife, Mr. T. B. Igleheart and wife, Mr. Z. T. Reid and wife, Mr. Murray Fulkerson and wife, Mr. Weaver Hocker and wife, Mr. Robt. Matthews and wife, Mr. Sam Withrow and wife, Mr. John Morton and wife, Mr. C. G. Kimbley and wife, Mr. C. D. Ross and wife, Mrs. Jennie Ross, Mrs. Sam Morton, Mrs. Alys Slaton, Mrs. Belle Kimbley, Mrs. O. W. Overhults, Mrs. John Igleheart, Mrs. Ara Ball, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Nannie Kimbley, Misses Ruth Fulkerson, Bula Reid, Alys Slaton, Blanche Slaton, Opal Kimbley, Bula Kimbley, Katie Matthews, Besse Ball, Golda Withrow, Nancy Addington, Ersie Addington, Ree Kimbley, Little Ethel Barnard, of Hartford; Messrs. Jno. Addington, Chas. Kimbley, Luther Addington, Ben Ross, Fred Robertson, of Hartford; John Culbertson, of Central City; Irvin Fulkerson, Edward Matthews and Albert Igleheart.

In this crowd there were nine who were with Mr. Kimbley 10 years ago when he celebrated the anniversary of his 21st birthday when there were 150 present. Those nine were: Mrs. Mollie Reid, Mrs. Mattie Igleheart, Mrs. Sam Morton, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Dr. Eversly, Mrs. W. M. Addington, Messrs. Jimmie Fulkerson, C. G. Kimbley and W. M. Addington.

The day was spent with joy and laughter, after which the friends and relatives departed for home wishing the "old white haired man" many happy returns of the day.

Payne-Thorpe.

The Citizens Daily Bulletin of Hot Springs, Ark., has the following announcement of the marriage of well known young people of Ohio county: "The many friends of Mr. Brodie Payne, son of Dr. J. B. Payne of this city, will be pleased to learn of his marriage to Miss Mary Ethel Thorpe, daughter of one of the most prominent citizens of McHenry, Ky."

The young couple were married last Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. John T. Christian, 1604 Springs street, Little Rock, Ark. After a short visit with relatives of the bride in Little Rock and of the groom in Hot Springs they will be at home to their friends in McHenry, Ky., after September 6."

A Narrow Escape.

Edgar N. Bayliss, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick, and coughed all the time and if I did not have consumption, it was near to it. I commenced using Foley's Honey and Tar, and it soon stopped my cough and I am now entirely well, and have gained twenty-eight pounds, all due to the good results from taking Foley's Honey & Tar."—James H. Williams.

The Race Problem.

Race problems are solved by natural laws. The new generation of negroes, with their growing demand for social equality, will find the South untenable for all such. They will emigrate to Northern States. They have been emigrating for years, and the movement will constantly increase. In most of the Northern states there is no legal bar to the mingling of the two races. The newer generation of negroes will refuse to work on the plantations and will crowd to the cities. They will be of no use in the South and their exit will be hastened on every side. The resources and opportunities for labor and investment in the South will attract classes that are willing to work, and they will come largely from Northern States. By a social endosmosis and exosmosis there will be an interchange of population, and in that way the race problem will be solved by a diffusion of the negro through the whole population. Fifty years more will not have elapsed before this natural movement will be accomplished.—[New Orleans Picayune]

Woman's Friend

Nearly all women suffer at times from female ailments. Some women suffer more acutely and more constantly than others. But whether you have little pain or whether you suffer intensely, you should take Wine of Cardui and get relief.

Cardui is a safe, natural medicine, for women, prepared scientifically from harmless vegetable ingredients. It acts easily on the female organs and gives strength and tone to the whole system.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., tried Cardui. She writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.
